A NEW COMPLICATION.

Murder of the Chancellor of Japanese Legation at Peking.

AMERICAN BLOOD SPILLED IN CHINA.

Dr. Edna G. Terry In Charge of Methodist Episcopal Women's Missionary Station Was Murdered—"Boxer" News.

New York, June 13.—News has been received here of the murder of Dr. Edna G. Terry, in charge of the station of the Methodist Episcopal Women's Foreign Missionary society at Tsung Hua, China. The tidings came in the shape of the following message to Dr. Terry's brother-in-law: "Dr. Terry murdered. Break news gently." Later the Methodist Episcopal board received this message: "Hopkins and Hayner say." The persons named are missionaries at Tsung Hua. There is one other Methodist missionary at the same place, Miss Croucher, of Boston.

JAPANESE MINISTER

At Washington Discusses the Disturbances in China.

Washington, June 13.—The navy department has been informed that the Yorktown sailed from Shanghai for Chefoo. The United States consul at Chefoo informed the state department of "Boxer" disturbances at that place, but no particulars were furnished. Chefoo is on the northern coast of the Shan Tung peninsula.

Official dispatches received in diplomatic quarters in Washington show that the rioting in Peking has reached an acute stage, with the rioters directing a number of their assaults against members of the different foreign legations there. One of these dispatches states that the secretary of the Belgian legation was attacked two successive times on Monday and escaped after being maltreated by the mob. On the same day two officials of the British legation, serving as student interpreters, were attacked by a large crowd of roughs. The young Englishmen held the attacking pack for a time, but when the mob threatened to close in on them, they drew revolvers, and by a show of force, made their retreat without bodily injury. About the same time the British summer quarters, 14 miles from Peking were burned down. These quarters were quite extensive and had just been completed. They belonged to the British government and not to Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister at Peking, which gives added significance to the depreciation. The killing of the chancellor of the Japanese legation at Peking, Sugihara Akira, is not referred to in the official dispatches received here, but full credit is given to this report by the Japanese officials who are personally acquainted with Mr. Akira and with many of the circumstances detailed.

The killing of a member of the diplomatic body and the foregoing assaults upon the officials of foreign countries, are regarded as presenting the most serious phase of the situation that has thus far occurred.

The Japanese chargé d'affaires in Washington, Mr. Kelsseiro Nabeshima, said: "We have no official confirmation of the killing of our chancellor at Peking, but there appears to be no doubt of the fact and it is a most serious condition."

The chief offense is against Japan, but aside from that it is against the entire diplomatic body at Peking, for if any one of them is subject to such assault they all share in the same danger. I was personally acquainted with Mr. Akira as he served under me in the foreign office at Tokio, while I was chief of the division of protocols. He was a bright young man, about 38 old and had a wife and four children. He was one of the most expert chirographers in Japan and this gained him the post of chancellor at Peking, where he went about three years ago."

Mr. Nabeshima said the Japanese government had pursued the utmost reserve up to this time, not wishing to be open to any suspicions, but he felt that if this tragedy occurred there would be energetic action taken. One of the most significant features of the affair, in his judgment, was that the killing was reported to have been done by the troops of the empress dowager, and not by any lawless mob. While there might be some excuse for mob depredations, Mr. Nabeshima said it would be difficult to form any favorable view of an attack by Chinese soldiers on the officials of foreign governments.

The burning of the British summer quarters is considered another attack upon an official institution, which is quite different from an attack upon a private citizen or private property. For some time there has been difficulty in securing the necessary permit to put up summer quarters in the hills outside of Peking, but this finally was granted and the quarters were made large enough to accommodate the entire British establishment in China. These included the minister and his staff of secretaries and attaches; also seven student interpreters, who had gone out from England to learn Chinese and fit themselves for the post of interpreter, besides servants. The buildings would have been occupied within the next few days and during the summer would have constituted the British legation.

REIGN OF TERROR.

Officials Believe the Riots at St. Louis Are Over.

St. Louis, June 13.—Sheriff Pohlman and Chief of Police Campbell are of the opinion that the reign of terror that has prevailed during the greater part of the past month as a result of the street railway strike is at an end. They are confident that their combined forces will be able to prevent any further lawlessness. It seems to be the general opinion that Sunday's riot was the culmination of these outbreaks.

Chief Campbell said that he believed there is now no need of calling out of the state militia.

All negotiations looking to a settlement of the strike are off and the officers of the company do not expect any further attempt to reopen negotiations to end the trouble.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor is expected here this week to take charge of strike affairs and his coming is looked on in labor circles as an indication that the fight against the Transit commission will be pushed to the limit.

Over 2,000 business men and citizens are now enrolled in the posse committees. The strict enforcement of law that has marked their service has brought them into disfavor with strike sympathizers in various parts of the city. As a result citizens wearing deputy sheriff's badges are made to suffer the inconveniences of a systematic boycott in many localities and are unable to buy anything to eat or drink.

At first meals were obtained at boarding houses and restaurants near the different power houses and car sheds at which deputies were stationed but the sheriff is now making preparations to feed his men at their respective stations. The boycott has been extended to the families of the posse.

The inquest over the bodies of Edward Thomas and George Rine, victims of Sunday's riot at Washington avenue and Sixth street began. A large number of witnesses were present.

In a Receiver's Hands.

Chicago, June 13.—The Chicago Electric Traction company was placed in the hands of Charles Henrotin as receiver. The petition was filed by the Manhattan Trust company of New York, and John Kean of New Jersey, as trustees in the mortgage covering the property. The mortgage is for $650,000 and was made January 2, 1899, to cover the issue of 650 gold bonds. The company succeeded the Englewood and Chicago Electric street railway company by reorganization of the bondholders of that company foreclosure proceedings some years ago. The company operates 29 miles of single track between Chicago and Blue Island. Isaac L. Rice of New York is president and other railway men are members of the directory.

Money More Plentiful.

Washington, June 13.—Secretary Gage was asked if he would continue withdrawing government funds from national depositories and if this action meant that the money stringency had disappeared. "Those funds," said he, "will be withdrawn from the depositories in proportion to the amounts deposited until $25,000,000 has been turned into the treasury for the purpose of paying for the two per cent bonds which will be redeemed shortly. Yes, this is a sign that the money stringency has disappeared, but a still better one is the fact that money is plentiful in New York at one and a half per cent."

AN INDECISIVE FIGHT.

Forces Under Lord Roberts and General Botha In Battle.

LINE OF COMMUNICATIONS RESTORED

The Victory of Generals Methuen and Kitchener Over General Dewet Will Permit British to Repair the Railroad.

London, June 13.—After a week's silence Lord Roberts has been heard from, his line of communication having been practically restored by means of a complete victory gained by Generals Methuen and Kitchener over General Dewet at the Rhenoster river June 12. The Boer camp was captured and the burghers were scattered in all directions.

Lord Roberts on being notified of the cutting of his line of communications sent General Kitchener in all haste to join General Methuen. June 11 Lord Roberts attacked General Botha, who was in strong force 15 miles southeast of Pretoria. After strenuous opposition, the British forces gained considerable ground, but General Botha when Lord Roberts left the field was still undefeated.

Allisquiet in Pretoria and Johannesburg and Lord Roberts says the government need have no apprehension about the security of the army in South Africa, as it will not take long to remedy the reverses and repair the railroad. A lengthy dispatch forwarded to the war office by Major General Knox from Kroonstad, presumably sent there by messenger, reads as follows: "Pretoria, June 12.—Pretoria and Johannesburg are perfectly quiet and several of the inhabitants have expressed gratitude for the peace and order which prevail."

"After surrendering the city Botha retired to a place about 15 miles east on the Middleburg road. He had a small force at first, but, during the last few days his numbers increased and his being so near the town kept up the excitement in the country, prevented the burghers from laying down their arms and interfered with the collection of supplies. It therefore became necessary to attack him. This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with Porter's and Dixon's cavalry brigades and Hutton's mounted infantry round by our left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and Gordon's brigade, Ridley's mounted infantry and Bruce Hamilton's infantry brigade round by our right. Both columns met with great opposition. About 3 in the afternoon I saw two of Hamilton's infantry battalions advancing to what appeared to be the key of the enemy's defense, on their left flank. This was almost gained before dark and I ordered the force to bivouac on the ground they had won.

"Pole-Carew, with his division, occupied our center.

"As I have explained, he could not attack, but he gradually advanced so as to support Ian Hamilton and when I left the field he was on the line held by the enemy's outposts in the morning.

"I hurried back to get news of Methuen's movement. On hearing that the Free Staters had taken advantage of our crossing the Vaal to interrupt our lines of communication I sent Kitchener with such troops as I could then spare to Vrededorp with orders to push through and communicate with Methuen, who I knew had a very compact force in the vicinity of Heilbron. I also dispatched a special messenger to Methuen instructing him to push on at all speed to the main line of railway. These two officers met at Vrededorp road station in the evening of June 10. They marched Tuesday to Rhenoster river, here Methuen gained a complete victory over Dewet and took possession of his camp and scattered his troops in all directions.

"Her majesty's government need have no apprehension as to the security of the army in South Africa. The enemy gained a slight success, which was unfortunate, but which will be repaired very shortly, and it will not take long to repair the damage done to the railway. As these diversions are all in existence, I am now able to hold the line between this and Rhenoster in strength.

"Hunter should be at Poatchefstroom now. He will then move on Johannesburg.

"We have communicated with Buller, who will no doubt make the presence of his force in the field felt.

"Our losses Tuesday were not, I trust, serious, but I deplore the death of that gallant soldier, the Earl of Airlie.

"The only other casualties reported as yet are Seventeenth Lancers, Major the Hon. Lionel Fortescue and Lieutenant the Hon. C. Cavendish, both killed."

Methuen's Losses.

London, June 13.—The following dispatch has been received at the war office from Lord Roberts at Katshbosch: "In yesterday's engagement Methuen had one killed and 18 wounded. Among the latter is Lieutenant Cearle of the 12 battalion of Yeomanry. On June 7th the Derbyshire militia lost 36 killed and 104 wounded, all of whom were in the Yeomanry hospital, which was captured by the Boers and retaken by Methuen."

DEMOCRATIC OFFICIALS

Are Given Possession of the Offices at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., June 13.—The court of appeals entered an order sustained in part in the motion of Attorney General Breckinridge in the minor state contests. The court discharges the supersedesas bonds of the Republican state officials so far as they relate to possession of the state offices and buildings. The effect of this is to put the Democratic state officials into possession of the offices and buildings at once. The motion to discharge the supersedesas as to the salaries of the state officers was overruled and this part of the controversy goes over to the fall term. Judge Burnham (R.) dissented.

Fatal Street Fight.

Kansas City, June 13.—In a street fight between a crowd of negro men and women, Rufus Bennett and Ora Childs, a negress, were killed, and Charles Jackson, proprietor of a barber shop, was fatally wounded. Twoscore men and women had mixed it up in the street with knives and beer bottles, and Detectives Kenney and Sparke tried to interfere. Jackson struck at Kenney. Kenney promptly shot Jackson in the leg, and five of the negroes held for Jackson's basement barber shop. The detectives followed and were met by Jackson with a small rifle and Bennett with a revolver. A lively exchange of shots followed. A shot from Jackson's rifle lodged in the breast of Ora Childs, killing her. A shot from one of the officers' guns struck Bennett in the head and he fell dead.

Seats Collapsed.

Chicago, June 13.—Reserved seats in a circus which has been showing for several days past collapsed just at the commencement of the performance, carrying to the ground hundreds of men, women and children. Fourteen people were injured, while several others sustained slight bruises. The tent was crowded with people. The cause of the catastrophe is variously attributed to overcrowding, carelessness and to soft soil.

Mount Out of City.

Indianapolis, June 13.—Justus Goebel, Attorney T. C. Campbell and Sheriff Suter, arrived here from Frankfort, Ky., with the requisition for W. S. Taylor, Republican claimant to the governorship of Kentucky. The three men went to the capitol to see Governor Mount but he was out of the city having gone to Crawfordsville. On his return Attorney Campbell will present an argument on the requisition.

Marines Sent.

Manilla, June 13.—The United States hospital ship Solace sailed at midnight having on board 100 marines and five officers, Major Waller commanding, in response to the telegraphic request sent from Tong Ku June 11, by Admiral Kempff. Thirty other marines left last week on the United States gun boat Nashville, bound for Tien Tsin. The marines on the Solace had been destined for Guam.

Marietta's New President.

Marietta, O., June 13.—At a meeting of the Marietta college trustees, Professor A. T. Perry of Hartford Theological seminary was elected president. Professor Perry is here, accepts the offer and will enter upon his duties with the new year. The trustees also received from Hon. R. M. Stimson the gift of over 19,000 volumes, a rare collection, which has been Mr. Stimson's life work.

Must Promise to Be Good.

Shanghai, June 13.—Extraordinary rumors current here are to the effect that the powers have settled the Chinese question by agreeing to forgive the dowager empress and her Manchu advisers, provided they promise to mend their future conduct.

The "Hello" Folks.

MEETING OF NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Contests Involving the Seats of Seventy-Five Delegates to Be Heard and Decided Prior to Opening Session.

Philadelphia, June 13.—The Republican national committee held its first session here. Chairman Hanna was not present at the opening of the meeting. In his absence Vice Chairman Henry C. Payne was designated to preside temporarily. There were several absentees especially from the western states and the number of proxies was much larger than usual.

Secretary Dick announced the states and district in which there were contests. There were 33 contests involving the seats of 75 delegates. This is about one-eleventh of the entire convention, a remarkably large proportion in a convention where there is no question as to the main issues.

It was decided to consider the contests in executive session. In the Delaware contest there was the same fight which the national committee held four years ago. The "regular" Republicans are headed by Coone Henry A. Dupont and the "Union" Republicans by J. Edward Addicks. Four years ago the national committee under the leadership of Senator Thurston decided against the Addicks delegates.

The contests were considered by states in alphabetical order. The Alabama contest appeared to hinge upon the aspirations of Mr. Vaughan to be state chairman for a third term. Out of his efforts for this honor there grew many controversies in the preliminary campaign and bloodshed resulted at the state convention. There was a split, and two conventions were held, each choosing a set of delegates. After hearing arguments, and without deciding the case the committee recessed for luncheon.

Senator Hanna, chairman of the committee, arrived at 1:30, but he did not assume the chair.

What Remey Wants.

Washington, June 13.—The navy department has received the following cablegram from Admiral Remey at Cavite: "Army turned over Cavite peninsula and Baslian island to naval control and defense. The army also wants to give up Olongapo. We can not take the latter while short of marines. The Solace with six officers intended for Guam and 500 marines have been sent to Kempff. Can the department send a battalion of marines to the Philippines? Think that the former Spanish naval station being under naval control. Additional forces needed if the navy is to secure naval station at the present time. The Yorktown has been placed at Kempff's disposal. The Castine is at Shanghai, and her repairs will be completed July 20. The Autria is at Caton with orders to proceed to Swatow and Amoy."

Decision In Will Case.

Falls City, Neb., June 13.—Judge Thompson announced his decision in the Miles will case in favor of Joseph H. Miles, the elder brother and defendant in the suit. By this decision Joseph H. Miles is confirmed in the possession in the bulk of his father's estate of $3,000,000 and the younger brother, Samuel, receives only $40,000 granted him under the original will. Stephen D. Mills was a pioneer government mail contractor, and when he died in 1897 practically cut off the son Samuel. The latter several months ago brought suit to have the will set aside, asserting that his father had written a second will in St. Louis in 1890. The second will, however, was never produced.

Sullivan Returns.

Indianapolis, June 13.—John E. Sullivan, the absconding clerk of Marion county, who fled in 1889 under a charge of embezzling about $80,000 of public money returned to Indianapolis. He came here from Greencastle, Ind. He says that after 11 years of wandering he wants to face his accusers. When Sullivan left here he went direct to Canada, where he remained several years.

A RECORD OF INFAMY.

In 137 working days the Fifty-sixth Congress passed 1,215 bills, of which 283 were of public character and 932 private, the latter including a large number of pension bills growing out of the war with Spain.

It is not for the number of its enactments, but for the character, both of measures passed and measures not passed, that the Fifty-sixth Congress is unique in all the history of bad legislation. "No Congress was ever confronted with great opportunities or more urgent demands for wise and virtuous law-making," says a writer. "No Congress ever so basely betrayed a great and solemn trust. From the beginning it has surrendered itself without control to the most dangerous elements of society, to the men and organizations whose interest lies in thwarting the will of the people and subverting the historic safeguards of law and order afforded by the Constitution."

The party pledge to "reform the currency" was met by the passage of a law which practically hands the constitutional function of uttering money over to the bankers and trust companies whose millions contributed so largely to McKinley's election.

A solemn promise to admit Porto Rico into the republic upon terms of full fellowship wantonly broken, in the face of a popular protest such as has seldom been heard in this or any other country. The passage of the Porto Rican act was a scene of infamy which no American will ever recall without a blush.

The oft reiterated promise to pass laws for the restriction of trusts was of course not fulfilled. Only the most thoughtless had expected a McKinley administration to tie the hands of organized wealth; but few perhaps were prepared for such a display of cynicism and contempt for the people as attended the shelving of anti-trust enactment this week.

The extravagance manifested in the numerous appropriation bills rushed through the Congress constitutes another record of infamy. The waste of the people's money is a necessary part of plutocracy's program.

The bill for the construction of the Nicaraguan Canal was, with other measures of great public importance, lost in the ignoble stress of private interests.

For sins of omission, no less than for sins of commission, the Fifty-sixth Congress has indeed made a "record"—a record of infamy.

DEMOCRATS GIVEN POSSESSION

Kentucky Court of Appeals Rules on Minor State Offices, Republican Judge Dissenting.

An order was entered in the Court of Appeals Wednesday, the effect of which is to give Democratic State officials possession of the State offices and State buildings at once.

Judge Burnam, Republican, dissented. Democrats will now be put in possession of the State building and will move in at once. The court refused to pass on the question of salaries, and that part will go over to the fall term of court.

The decision was granted in response to a motion by Attorney General Breckinridge, filed yesterday, asking the discharge of the supersedesas bonds of Republican officials, basing the motion on public policy.

Auditor Coulter conferred with minor Republican officials, and it is probable that the transfer of State offices and records will be made to-day.

But there is no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. FOR PATRIOTS.

Only One Ticket to Vote for This Year and That the Democratic.

[New York World.]
The talk of nominating a "Gold Democrat" Presidential ticket this year should and most probably will end in talk.

There is no occasion for such a ticket. Four years ago free silver was the dominant issue in the campaign. This year, though it may be talked about in certain sections, it will not be an issue at all, because the money question is settled for at least four years to come by an unchangeable Republican majority in the Senate. In 1896 the college was an open question. It has since been closed for present by the enactment of a gold standard law which no possible result of the pending election can repeal. Yet, when the issue was most alive and threatening the Presidential ticket of Sound Money Democrats received only a pitiful 133,424 votes out of a total of nearly 14,000,000. Most of the Democrats whose opposition to free silver was strong enough to prevent them from supporting Bryan voted directly for McKinley, as they would do again this year were the issue and danger the same.

But the issue is not the same. The danger is different and vastly more portentous. This country can endure any change in its currency. Such changes, though they may cause much disturbance to business and great pecuniary losses, do not touch the foundation nor affect the structure of our Government. But imperialism, militarism and monopoly, the real and only issues in the election, strike at the basic principles and threaten the very existence of the republic.

A country with subject possessions secured by conquest and governed by force is not a republic. And where plutocracy becomes merely a name, without force or effect.

It is for these reasons that a third ticket this year is not only uncalled for, but would be even more farcical than it was in 1896. Mr. Bryan, who, as the World said two months ago, will be re-nominated by acclamation, represents the American and therefore the Democratic side of these living, burning, dominant issues. He is for this reason entitled to, and will receive, the support of the World and of all those who believe with us that "the only issue worth considering in this campaign is the preservation of the republic, the maintenance of the Constitution and a return to the principles of the Declaration of Independence."

WHAT?

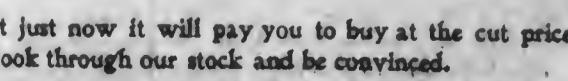

WHITE, JUDD & CO. SELLING OUT!

I CAN'T BELIEVE IT.

It's true all the same. G. S. Judd sold out to Mr. White and went West. J. F. Martin then sold out to Mr. White and now Mr. White sees that he cannot see well enough to conduct the business, so he has decided to close out his large and elegant stock of Furniture at cost. No 10 per cent cut plan but at COST.

IF YOU NEED ANYTHING IN THE FURNITURE LINE NOW IS THE TIME TO SECURE IT CHEAP.

And if you don't need it just now it will pay you to buy at the cut prices for future use. Come and look through our stock and be convinced.

C. H. WHITE.

Mr. White went to Cincinnati a few days ago to have his eyes operated on, but his physician concluded it was not advisable at present, so he has decided to sell out and quit business.

He will sell any or all the houses he owns in Maysville—some at cost and some below cost, and on from one to five years' time, deferred payments to bear 5 per cent. interest.

Valedictory—"I stand upon lofty mountain-top and feel my spirit stretch into a view".....Miss Edythe Hamilton Perrine.

Distinguished success, in any line, implies merit and fitness. That the Misses Young are so endowed was, as often in time passed, demonstrated upon this occasion. 'Twas in evidence that system and thoroughness govern in their teaching, and the appreciation of patrons and friends was pronounced. Their reputation was well and amply sustained.

As to the pupils: To recall every name on the program and append "well and handsomely done" is enough. To award individual praise would admit of no less, nor would it convey more.

There were pathos and humor in the recitations; melody in the vocal and instrumental selectives; grace in the posing of the little Misses, genuine poetry in all the motions of the many "flower, boys," —in all, a happy combination.

Miss Jessie Yancey's rendition was worthy the finished address of Miss Helena Nolin to the graduate.

The valedictory of Miss Edythe Hamilton Perrine was a gem of production, evincing mental vigor, trained thought and facile application of admirably rounded sentences to the pointing of a wholesome moral. It was alike creditable to pupil and teacher.

Our Grand Lodge officers are worthy of the greatest praise for their activity and ability, and the deep interest they feel and display in all that concerns the good of the order. There is not a half-way man among them—all are thorough and efficient. They are surely at work, and their work counts for the general good. PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

[By Robert Taylor.]

A guilty conscience needs no accuser.

A fair trial may be the least of Taylor's desires.

A fair trial might be the complete undoing of Taylor.

Taylor expected to be an issuer of requisitions instead of having one issued for him.

An innocent man never concerns himself as to whether a trial shall be fair or unfair.

Taylor has more to fear from a fair trial than he has from an "unfair" one, we suspect.

Taylor meant business when he went to Indiana, although he mayn't have had life insurance in view.

A man may be innocent when he goes to "Injany," but he must cut his stay mighty short if he would continue so.

A stay in Indiana may be good for Taylor's health, but we question whether it will be so beneficial to his "innocence."

If Taylor wishes to preserve his "innocence" he shouldn't remain in "Injany" any longer than it will take him to get away.

Doubtless Taylor didn't fire the shot that killed Gobel, but he knew it was to be fired, and it was fired in his interest, therefore he is as culpable before the law as the brute that pressed the trigger.

The marriage of Miss Lida Lowry and Mr. Thomas G. Kincaid will take place June 27th at 2 p.m. at the home of the bride's mother Mrs. Lucy Lowry, 315 Plum street.
